APPLICATION: Temporary admission to the United States pursuant to Section 212(d)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, despite inadmissibility under Section 212(a)(28) of the Act.

The applicant was born on October 27, 1917 in Bizana, South Africa, and is a citizen and resident of that country. The Department of State has found that he is ineligible to receive a visa because of his membership in the African National Congress, a Communist-front organization. He seeks to enter the United States to testify before a United Nations special committee regarding Apartheid policies of the South African government from June 22, 1963 to July 3, 1963. He plans to depart for the United States on June 19, 1963. The applicant will be accompanied by Duma Nokwe and Tennyson X. Makiwane who are coming for the same purpose and who are the subjects of separate orders.

Previous orders authorizing admission of the applicant have been entered by the Service on several occasions. There is no evidence to indicate that he violated the conditions of those admissions. Completed security checks made by the Department of State have disclosed no additional derogatory information. That Department and the consular officer at Dar-es-Salaam recommend that admission be authorized in view of the fact that the United States Mission to the United Nations has confirmed the approval of the applicant as a petitioner before the Apartheid Committee.

Oliver Eginale ZIMBO

APPLICATION: Temporary admission to the United States pursuant to Section 212(d)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, despite inadmissibility under Section 212(a)(28) of the Act.

The applicant was born on October 27, 1917 in Durban, South Africa, and is a citizen and resident of that country. The Department of State has found that he is ineligible to receive a visa because of his membership in the ~~African National Congress~~, a Communist-front organization. He seeks to enter the United States to testify before a United Nations special committee regarding Apartheid policies of the South African Government from June 22, 1963 to July 9, 1963. He plans to depart for the United States on June 19, 1963. The applicant will be accompanied by Eura Ekin and Benyoon K. Makinaw who are coming for the same purpose and who are the subjects of separate orders.

Previous orders authorizing admission of the applicant have been entered by the Service on several occasions. There is no evidence to indicate that he violated the conditions of those admissions. Completed security checks made by the Department of State have disclosed no additional derogatory information. That Department and the consular officer at Harare-Solomon recommended that admission be authorized in view of the fact that the United States Mission to the United Nations has confirmed the approval of the applicant as a witness before the Apartheid Committee.

It is recommended that the application be granted, subject to revocation at any time.
